Postal Rate Boost Coming

Leaders of House Sure Revenue Bill To Pass

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaders of both parties predicted House passage today of a bill to raise mailing charges.

Both Representatives McCormack and Martin, the majority and minority leaders, said they expect the House to approve the postal rate increases asked by President Eisenhower to help offset a postal operating deficit.

Martin specifically said he expects approval of a raise from 3 to 4 cents for mailing a letter. This is the bill's principal money-raising feature.

Neither forecast what would happen to the measure in the Senate. Martin was asked about reports the Senate might tie the postal rate bill into another measure which would raise the pay of postal workers. He said he didn't know whether that might be done, but predicted Eisenhower would veto such a combined measure.

The House has voted pay increases for postal and other government workers. The Senate has not yet acted.

• • •

THERE HAS been speculation that passage of a postal rate increase as well as the pay raise measures might make it easier to override an expected veto of the pay raise legislation.

Eisenhower has opposed any general pay increase for government employees as potentially inflationary.

The rate bill would raise immediately the rates on first-class letter and air mail, and provide graduated increases on second-class newspapers and magazines and third-class advertising matter mailing costs.

In all, the increases would bring, by 1960, an estimated $27½ million a year in added postal revenues.

The Postoffice Department has estimated postal revenues now are running about $651 million less than it costs to run the service.

Daytonian Shot, Thinks Thugs Kidding

DAYTON (AP)—A Dayton man is in critical condition at Miami Valley Hospital today because, police say, he couldn't believe an armed robbery was taking place before his eyes.

Two men believed to be the ones who carried out the robbery in which Herbert White, 34, was shot are in Montgomery County jail. Ohio Highway Patrolmen said they picked up Donald Armstrong, 21, in the neighborhood of the 2400 Bar, scene of the $114 robbery and shooting about 11:15 Monday night.

They said Armstrong implicated James Bowles, 20, who was picked up at another bar a few minutes later. The money was recovered, patrolmen said. The 2400 Bar is northeast of Dayton in Montgomery County.

Patrolmen said witnesses told them that White was sitting on a bar stool when one of the two men entered the bar and announced the robbery. They quoted White as saying: "Oh, you're kidding," and turning slightly on the stool.

He was shot through the side with a .45 caliber bullet.

The victim and the two suspects are from Dayton.

Cincinnati City Aide Held For Fund Theft

CINCINNATI (AP)—City Urban Renewal officials say an employee, Richard R. Hobe, 30, has admitted stealing about $300 in rental payments on property the city has bought for slum clearance. Investigators said Hobe, arrested Monday, told them he collected full rent from persons who still live on the property, but in his accounts, showed that only part payment, fell on the fantastic cloak-and-dagger career of Boris Milhailovich Morros.

For 12 years the Russian-born Hollywood producer acted as a master counterespionage for the United States. The perilous role took him to obscure hotels, dimly lit cafes and dark street corners from Paris to Moscow.

Monday Morros, 62, told his tale at a news conference in the office of Acting U. S. Atty. Thomas B. Gilchrist Jr.

Morros' testimony before a federal grand jury earlier this year brought an espionage indictment against Mr. and Mrs. Jack Soble and Jacob Alham, and against Mr. and Mrs. George Zlatovski. Alham and Mrs. Soble were sentenced to 5½ years in prison. Soble will be sentenced Sept. 18.

The balding producer and music director told in a thick Russian accent how he hoodwinked the Soviets into thinking he was a spy for them. Yet, the whole time, he was sending reports to the FBI.

"I was never a Russian spy in my life," he said at the outset, "and during the war I acquired a kind of bravery, and I guess I behaved properly in the 12 years of my activity."

"That is the only reason I am alive. I don't think I could do it again."

Morros said neither his wife nor his friends had "any inkling of my activity, which took me to Europe 68 times, including Moscow and East Berlin."

He said posing as a spy for the Russians wasn't easy.

"I hated everything they stood for and when I had to express myself to high Russian officials and to American spies employed by them in terms of supporting their vicious ideology, I really had to do a more realistic acting job than any of the players whom I had ever directed in Hollywood."

"My life and my mission depended on that."

Morros, born to a family of musicians in St. Petersburg now Leningrad, came to the United States in 1922 and became a naturalized citizen. He said he went back to Russia in 1935 to visit his mother. In 1945 the Russians asked him to become an agent for them.

"I went straight to the FBI and reported what had happened," he said. "I was told to agree to the Russian proposals and make my contacts."

Morros said the Russians asked him to get information on strategic materials and products. He handed them documents cleared by the FBI.

He said an FBI agent was never more than a stone's throw away from him on his trips to Europe.

Boy, 13, Fears Pal To Squeal, Shoots Him

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP)—Juvenile authorities held 13-year-old Bernie B. Kurtz in jail today. Sheriff Murray Britton said he admitted slaying a playmate because he was afraid the younger boy would snitch about a burglary they perpetrated.

The victim was Johnny Morris, 12. The two boys lived in Henley, a southern Oregon village near Klamath Falls.

Sheriff Britton said Bernie admitted he and Johnny broke into a home Saturday afternoon and took eight guns so they could go on a hunting trip.

They took a pickup truck at Johnny's house, although neither had driven before, and headed for the Bly Mountain country, 55 miles northeast of Klamath Falls. They shot a raccoon and ate it for dinner. The next morning Johnny got homesick and wanted to return to Henley.

Searchers found Bernie in the truck Sunday afternoon and continued the hunt for Johnny. Sheriff Britton said Bernie finally led them to Johnny's body, hidden in a burned log. Johnny had been shot in the back and the head.

Cambridge Deputies Thwart Jail Break

CAMBRIDGE (AP)—Deputies making a routine jail check Monday night thwarted an escape attempt on the part of two prisoners. Sheriff Forest Warden identified the prisoners as Everett Allen, of Cambridge, serving a sentence for breaking and entering, and George Hopkins of Parkersburg, W. Va., held on federal charges of transporting a stolen vehicle across a state line.

The sheriff said the two tried to break out of the Guernsey County Jail by using a pipe ripped from a wash basin to attack cell bars,

State Board Stands Pat On Belle Aire Transfer

The State Board of Education Monday night refused to reconsider its rejection of a request to transfer 167 acres in Belle Aire Addition from the Miami Trace school district to the Washington C. H. school district.

The refusal has placed the Washington C. H. Board of Education "behind the eight ball," Robert Terhune, president of the board, and W. A. Smith, the superintendent, said Tuesday morning.

The 167-acre tract, as yet undeveloped, is now a part of Washington C. H. The annexation was approved several months ago by the county commissioners and the city council. However, the annexation does not automatically include the transfer from one school district to another.

G. D. Baker, owner of the tract has told the board he will donate two acres for a new elementary school and has given an option to buy three adjoining acres at $1,000 a acre for two acres and at the tax valuation for the third acre.

A NEW elementary school in Belle Aire was a part of the $645,000 building program approved by the city voters last November.

Terhune said Tuesday that "undoubtedly the Washington C. H. board will hold a special meeting to see what can be done to take care of the 156 school children now living in the Belle Aire area."

Speculating on what course the board might take, Terhune said it might consider construction of the school, as planned in the $645,000 program, on the Belle Aire site which is still in the 167 acres in the Miami Trace district.

(The Fayette County Board of Education has indicated it will transfer the 167-acre tract to the city if the city board furnishes "valid evidence" it plans to construct a school on the Belle Aire site.)

He said, too, the board would consider a new site for the school if one were available and then added "but there is none."

Another possibility suggested by Terhune was a request of the board to ask the State Board of Education to send a committee here to make a first hand study of the situation.

• • •

REPRESENTING the Washington C. H. district at the hearing Monday night were Terhune, Supt. Smith and two board members, Elmer Reed and William A. Lovell.

Terhune and Smith presented the case for the city first. Each was given five minutes, but no time for rebuttal after the Miami Trace district spokesmen had been heard.

Knowland Rejects Civil Rights Swap

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Knowland firmly rejected today any idea that President Eisenhower might back down on the civil rights bill in exchange for an increase in foreign aid funds.

"The President is not trading the constitutional rights of any American for any piece of legislation," Knowland said after a White House meeting.

Some House Democrats reportedly have suggested they might vote for higher foreign aid appropriations (something Eisenhower strongly favors) if the Republicans would support the civil rights bill in the form approved by the Senate.

Basically, the continuing behind-the-scenes struggle in the House is between Democratic and Republican leaders. House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) seems to get House acceptance of the bill in substantially the form it passed the Senate.

• • •

REPUBLICAN Leader Martin (Mass.) is out to junk the Senate's jury trial amendment.

Rayburn and Senate Democratic Leader Johnson, also of Texas, talked Monday on the possibility of adjournment without final action on the civil rights bill if there was insistence on dropping the jury trial amendment.

Making it plain he was not reflecting the President's views, but rather expressing his own, Martin said it would be "infinitely better" to defer action on the civil rights bill than to adopt the Senate measure.

The House GOP leader said it might be well to let the whole matter drop until the 1958 session. Then he added:

"It might be in order to recess and have the President call us back in November when we could devote our whole time to the question."

The civil rights issue became tied in with foreign aid spending about the time Eisenhower was meeting Monday night with Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress in an effort to stave off new cuts in his $3,864,410,000 foreign aid program.

Knowland sharply rejected any talk of compromise.

Prominent Names Appearing In Hollywood Libel Hearing

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Clark Gable says he doesn't even know Francesca de Scaffa, who was quoted in the Confidential Magazine criminal libel trial as saying she "had an affair" with him while getting information for a story about his first wife.

On the Hawaiian island of Maui, Gable said about testimony concerning the purported affair: "I think I would remember that, but to my knowledge I never met the lady in my life."

Gable is vacationing on the island with his present wife, the former Kay Spreckels.

Former Confidential Editor Howard Rushmore testified Monday that Miss de Scaffa, former wife of actor Bruce Cabot, told him she had the affair with Gable. At the time, Rushmore said, she was gathering information for a story on Josephine Dillon, a drama coach whom Gable married in 1924.

Rushmore had testified earlier that Miss de Scaffa, whom he identified as Confidential's chief source of information in Hollywood, had told him she would be willing to have affairs with movie stars to get material for stories.

The defense counsel asked Rushmore: "Did she tell you that she obtained information on any story by sleeping with someone?"

"Yes," said Rushmore. "She said she got the information on the Dillon story from a person she was having an affair with." Asked to name the person, Rushmore replied:

"Clark Gable."

Rushmore said he had no knowledge of her purported affair with Gable other than what she had told him.

Miss de Scaffa, under indictment in this case, is in Mexico. Names prominent not only in movie circles but international affairs dropped like leaves at the

Competitors Sell For Ailing Dealer

GALESBURG, Ill. (AP)—The Brown Motor Co. is getting a business boost from its 10 car sales competitors.

Two competitors each day are acting as salesmen for the firm because the company's owner, Henry J. Brown, 55, is hospitalized from a heart attack.

As Brown operated his firm on a one-man basis, there's no one to carry on—except other car dealers.

So they have launched "Operation Brownie." Newspaper car sale advertisements carried the slogan "See Brownie First." Also they underwrote a full-page ad, announcing a used car sale at Brown's.

Dep. Dist. Atty. William L. Ritz said he expects to call Ronnie Quillan, identified by Rushmore as a "Hollywood madam," to the stand today. She formerly was a Confidential informant, Rushmore testified.

Miss Quillan's name cropped up again when Rushmore said a Confidential story about television star Desi Arnaz came from "one of Ronnie's call girls."

Rushmore, who spent most of the day on the stand, said information for the magazine's stories came from "madams, procurers, call girls and private detectives."

Rushmore testified he quit his job as editor of Confidential in the late summer of 1955 because of "increasingly repulsive material" being published.

Rushmore said that he and Publisher Robert Harrison had many discussions about whether their stories would hurt Hollywood personalities.

"Harrison said the main object was to sell magazines," Rushmore said, "and it wasn't within our province to determine whether it hurts people. He told me in effect that if the truth hurts, that's it."

Ex-Union Leader Explains Finances

WASHINGTON (AP)—Anthony Doria, former secretary of the Allied Industrial Workers (AIW), acknowledged today he used to keep thousands of dollars of union cash in an iron strong box hidden under a heap of papers at AIW headquarters in Milwaukee.

And, Doria agreed with questioning senators, he never gave the rank and file members an accounting of the money.

But Doria insisted that union funds "were not used for my personal use" although he said records showing how the money was used may have disappeared.

For the second day, Doria was in the witness chair of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee. A 238-pound, voluble man, Doria put in a good part of Monday defending New York racketeer Johnny Dio, who got into the union business through help from Doria. He insisted Dio, a convicted extortionist, was desirous of going straight but that a "cruel society" which declined to forget Dio's criminal record would not let him.

DORIA CONTINUED to be a fast talker as the committee turned to day to his personal finances.

The committee sought first to untangle how $9,620 of proceeds from the sale of a union-owned government bond ended up as an investment in a firm in which Doria had a $25,000 financial stake. Doria insisted the union lost nothing on this deal.

As to how he handled union money, Doria said he never made a financial report to the union members, because the AIW constitution required only a report to the union's president, Earl Heaton, who recently stepped down from that post.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) remarked "It's a lame constitution if that's all it provides."

"Tell that to the members," Doria hotly retorted. "I made an accounting to all that the constitution required," he said, and added that in this case "all" meant Heaton.

Doria said Heaton was the only person who knew that he (Doria) had the box of cash at union headquarters, hidden under a heap of papers on a shelf in a room adjoining Doria's.

Doria said he saw "no object in me instituting a more costly procedure" that would let the members know about the money and how it was spent.

"You know that's plain silly," McClellan snapped. "And everyone else knows it."

The committee is exploring charges that Dio and Teamsters union boss James R. Hoffa had a crooked alliance which produced power for Hoffa and money from labor rackets for Dio and his followers.

Man Too Large For Lie Test

TOLEDO (AP)—William Jennings failed Monday in an attempt to prove his innocence in a lawn mower theft by a lie detector test. He was too big for the testing machine.

Convicted by Municipal Judge Homer A. Ramey, he protested his innocence so fervently that the judge agreed to the polygraph test.

But when the 6-7, 330-pound Jennings sat down for the test, police couldn't even get the chest strap of the machine around him.

Another strap, designed to go around the upper arm, fitted neatly around Jennings' wrist. But there wasn't enough blood pressure at that point to get a reading.

Jennings won his point, however. The judge granted a new trial for Aug. 22.

Student Swap Vessel Docks At New York

Officials Uncertain Whether Disease Is Of Asiatic Type

NEW YORK (AP)—An Atlantic crossing beset by 200 cases of influenza ended today with the docking of the student exchange ship Arosa Sky and the holding of 27 patients for observation.

About 50 of the patients still were ill when the vessel arrived from Rotterdam, the others having recovered en route. There were no fatalities.

There was no immediate diagnosis as to whether the ailment was the so-called Asiatic flu which has been sweeping some sections of the world.

A spokesman for the American Field Service, sponsor of the program bringing foreign students here for study in 44 states, said 7 of the 27 being kept for observation had temperatures of 102 degrees or higher.

None was regarded as ill enough to require an ambulance or hospital treatment.

ARRANGEMENTS were made for taxicabs to take males among the 27 to the Field Service headquarters in Manhattan, and the females to the Martha Washington Hotel nearby.

The rest of the 647 students aboard, among 847 passengers in all, were directed to go to the Hotel New Yorker ballroom to get instructions on the next lap of their journeys to cities and towns across the country.

All but two of the cases were among the young students. One (Please turn to page two)

Indiana Boy Is Object of Wide Search

BRAZIL, Ind. (AP)—Police called on the Indiana National Guard and all citizens today to combine in a huge search for 7-year-old Billy Martin, missing since Saturday.

Beginning at 8 a.m., with help from planes of the Civil Air Patrol, the big group started its most determined hunt yet for the youngster, whom a theories fear may have met with foul play. There are numerous water-filled strip coal mine pits in this area.

Meanwhile Police Chief Joseph Russell said he will continue questioning Billy's aunt and her boy friend, following lie detector tests Monday, which he said showed a "strong possibility" the two may know something about the boy's disappearance.

Russell said he is "almost certain the boy met with foul play." The aunt's boy friend, a 53-year-old part-time guitar player named Harry A. Higgins, was being held in Clay County jail for investigation. Billy's aunt, Elizabeth Martin, 41, was released following the lie test at state police headquarters in Indianapolis.

Higgins, who had been living at the Martin house the last two weeks since he lost his job as a Chicago coffee salesman, apparently was the last person to see the boy. He told police Billy nearly ran into the path of his car at about 4 p.m. Saturday, and he warned the youngster to go home.

Youngstown Cop's Home Is Bombed

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—The home of city detective Lloyd Haynes was damaged by a dynamite bomb early today, but no one was injured. He estimated damage to the house at $1,500.

Haynes, a member of the vice squad, said the bomb apparently consisted of one stick of dynamite. It was placed in front of the house beneath a living room window.

The detective, his wife and two daughters were asleep when the explosion occurred about 1 a.m.

Haynes said he could give no motive for the dynamiting except that he had been investigating other bombings in this area.

Today's bombing was the 23rd in Youngstown and the 56th in this area—all unsolved—since late 1951.

Meany Opposed To Hoffa Stand

CHICAGO (AP)—George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, has placed himself in direct opposition to the views of Teamsters bigwig James R. Hoffa on the matter of cooperation with congressional committees.

Meany reaffirmed his stand against labor leaders invoking the Fifth Amendment to protect themselves. He said the AFL-CIO will cooperate with congressional committees "turning up corruption in labor."

The labor chieftain reiterated his views Monday in a news conference at the end of the first session of his organization's 29-man Executive Council meeting.

Hoffa, Midwest boss of the Teamsters Union and a growing power in labor ranks, has declared himself against the AFL-CIO amendment policy. He is a prime mover behind a labor group which is attempting to repudiate an Executive Council statement which says:

"IT IS THE policy of the AFL-CIO that if a trade union official decides to take the Fifth Amendment for his personal protection and to avoid scrutiny by proper legislative committees, law enforcement agencies or other public bodies, into alleged corruption on his part, he has no right to continue to hold office in his union."

The Hoffa-led group contends this stand "has created a substantial threat to liberty and the strength of the union."

The Fifth Amendment to the Constitution holds that a person does not have to give testimony which might incriminate him.

Disagreement between Meany and Hoffa on this matter might come to a head when the council takes up the case of President Maurice A. Hutcheson of the Carpenters Union. He took the Fifth Amendment at a congressional hearing.

Student Swap Vessel Docks At New York

Officials Uncertain Whether Disease Is Of Asiatic Type

NEW YORK (AP)—An Atlantic crossing beset by 200 cases of influenza ended today with the docking of the student exchange ship Arosa Sky and the holding of 27 patients for observation.

About 50 of the patients still were ill when the vessel arrived from Rotterdam, the others having recovered en route. There were no fatalities.

There was no immediate diagnosis as to whether the ailment was the so-called Asiatic flu which has been sweeping some sections of the world.

A spokesman for the American Field Service, sponsor of the program bringing foreign students here for study in 44 states, said 7 of the 27 being kept for observation had temperatures of 102 degrees or higher.

None was regarded as ill enough to require an ambulance or hospital treatment.

ARRANGEMENTS were made for taxicabs to take males among the 27 to the Field Service headquarters in Manhattan, and the females to the Martha Washington Hotel nearby.

The rest of the 647 students aboard, among 847 passengers in all, were directed to go to the Hotel New Yorker ballroom to get instructions on the next lap of their journeys to cities and towns across the country.

All but two of the cases were among the young students. One (Please turn to page two)

Indiana Boy Is Object of Wide Search

BRAZIL, Ind. (AP)—Police called on the Indiana National Guard and all citizens today to combine in a huge search for 7-year-old Billy Martin, missing since Saturday.

Beginning at 8 a. m., with help from planes of the Civil Air Patrol, the big group started its most determined hunt yet for the youngster, whom authorities fear may have met with foul play. There are numerous water-filled strip coal mine pits in this area.

Meanwhile Police Chief Joseph Russell said he will continue questioning Billy's aunt and her boy friend, following lie detector tests Monday, which he said showed a "strong possibility" the two may know something about the boy's disappearance.

Russell said he is "almost certain the boy met with foul play." The aunt's boy friend, a 53-year-old parttime guitar player named Harry A. Higgins, was being held in Clay County jail for investigation. Billy's aunt, Elizabeth Martin, 41, was released following the lie test at state police headquarters in Indianapolis.

Higgins, who had been living at the Martin house the last two weeks since he lost his job as a Chicago coffee salesman, apparently was the last person to see the boy. He told police Billy nearly ran into the path of his car at about 4 p. m. Saturday, and he warned the youngster to go home.

Youngstown Cop's Home Is Bombed

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—The home of city detective Lloyd Haynes was damaged by a dynamite bomb early today, but no one was injured. He estimated damage to the house at $1,500.

Haynes, a member of the vice squad, said the bomb apparently consisted of one stick of dynamite. It was placed in front of the house beneath a living room window.

The detective, his wife and two daughters were asleep when the explosion occurred about 1 a. m. Haynes said he could give no motive for the dynamiting except that he had been investigating other bombings in this area.

Today's bombing was the 23rd in Youngstown and the 56th in this area—all unsolved—since late 1951.

Teachers Learn From Pupils in Private School

Third Graders Demonstrate Reading Methods

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — A school where the students "teach" the teachers? It happens every summer at North Hollywood's Oakwood School. Picture this scene: Seven third graders are sitting at small tables, workbooks and pencils in front of them. An Oakwood teacher asks one to spell to spell the word "safety" then give the rule for the spelling. The pupil, a towheaded boy of 8, spells it correctly, then explains in precise tones: "I retained the final 'e' because the suffix begins with a consonant."

THIS EVOKES a low rum from a group of 10 adults sitting in a semi-circle behind the students. They are Los Angeles area teachers taking a summer course in the teaching of reading, writing and spelling at nearby Occidental College.

The students at Oakwood volunteer to attend the summer session to act as guinea pigs in demonstrating the school's remarkably successful reading method.

"I believe we could teach a goat to read," laughed Oakwood's director, Miss Marie Spottswood.

Oakwood's 65 students, far from being goats, range from average students to those of near genius ability.

OAKWOOD does not use the so-called "sight" method of reading, under which a student learns to recognize the words through a mental image. With this system, Miss Spottswood says, the student never learns the principles of spelling or pronunciation.

Students at Oakwood learn the sound of letters so they can pronounce the word even if they don't understand its meaning. Intense spelling and dictionary training are combined with the phonetics.

The school was started in 1950 by a group of parents led by actor Robert Ryan and his wife, Jessica. Their three children—Timothy, 11, Cheyney, 9, and Lisa, 5—are Oakwood students.

The founders reasoned that a school specializing in small classes could give better training than overcrowded public schools. Oakwood limits its classes to 10.

While none of the families sending children to Oakwood is considered rich many are comfortably "well off." The fathers are doctors, lawyers, architects, actors and studio executives.

THE SCHOOL has had some hard times since it first started in an abandoned synagogue. Funds come from tuition ($675 a year per student) and money raising drives. It receives no state funds, and is non-sectarian and non-racial.

It is Miss Spottswood's belief that the gifted child can be identified at the first grade level "and here at Oakwood first graders receive attention and studies they need to keep their busy minds occupied."

"A gifted child must be kept busy," she said. "A child who enters school and remains unrecognized as gifted can well become the delinquent of tomorrow."

Polish City Tenses In Transit Strike

LODZ, Poland (P) — Communist authorities placed armed guards at every street corner of this tense city today and braced for a showdown with 10,000 defiant transport strikers. Their strike for higher pay paralyzed the city, once hailed as a Communist model for all Poland.

Police tear gas bombs sent five persons to hospitals in one outbreak Monday. Other strikers barricaded themselves in car barns to prevent strike breaking. Strikers are the only public transportation in Lodz, a city of 700,000 about 75 miles southwest of Warsaw. Dubbed "Red City" by the Communists, it is Poland's second largest municipality.

School Transfer

Terhune and Smith pointed out that the city had taken an option on the proposed site of the school.

Fayette County opponents to the transfer argued that the city is using the proposed transfer as a wedge to annex industrial territory in the area.

SMITH AND Terhune emphasized that the territory already has been annexed to the city and declared that the Washington C. H. school board wants to maintain faith with the people who voted bonds for the building which was proposed for this site.

They said the board does not want to be placed in the position of constructing a building in another school district and stressed there are no available sites of adequate size left within the city on which to construct needed school facilities.

"A wall should not be erected around the city, preventing expansion of the school district or the municipality," they told the board.

A part of the dispute is whether the city system actually will carry out its announced plans to build a new elementary school in the tract, Smith and Terhune said the plans are set. Miami Trace Board members J. Herbert Perrill and Richard Snyder, and County Supt. W. J. Hilly, said the plans are not set.

THE RURAL school leaders conceded, however, the disputed tract, which has no sizable tract valuation nor children living in it now, is not the real issue. They said the transfer would put the city school district next to a rich industrial tract, in position for a further annexation that would hurt the countywide Miami Trace district.

State board members have indicated an increasing reluctance to approve school transfers, in the wake of the county-to-city annexations, which weaken county districts.

State board members asked a new statement of policy be drawn up for action in September, that may openly oppose transfers which would "reduce a county school district to the danger point or look like they might."

PERRILL questioned why the Washington C. H. board has not acted to sell its bonds, taking the position that the city board is not in litigation and could proceed with construction of new schools if it wished to do so.

He questioned the taking of a five-year option on the Belle Aire property if the board intended to act immediately on the construction of a school there.

Supt. Hilly referred to a resolution passed by the Fayette County Board of Education on June 29 which put that board on record as ready to transfer the 167-acre Belle Aire tract to the Washington C. H. City School District "if and when the Washington C. H. City Board of Education furnishes concrete, tangible and valid evidence that a school will be erected on the alleged site as represented to the electors of Washington C. H. and with the proceeds of the bonds voted."

City and federal health officials and doctors boarded the ship when she dropped anchor, at quarantine Monday night. A large police detail was at the dock to help with disembarking.

Two hours after the ship docked Stephen Galatti, director general of the Field Service, said "As of now it appears that none of the sick students will be hospitalized."

Longshoremen, reluctant to work the ship because of the outbreak, were told "there is no menace or contamination" from handling the cargo.

Senate Gives Nod To Military Jobs

WASHINGTON (P) — The Senate has voted to authorize military construction projects totaling $1,445,285,000 in the current fiscal year which started last July 1.

The Senate passed the authorization bill Monday night. The actual funds will be appropriated in a separate measure.

The Senate version of the authorization measure includes $1,203,412,000 in new authorizations, compared with $1,603,072,000 in the House bill. Differences will have to be compromised.

The House already has passed an appropriations bill providing $1,581,000,000 for military construction, much of which is set up in the authorization measure just passed by the Senate.

THE RURAL school leaders conceded, however, the disputed tract, which has no sizable tax valuation nor children living in it now, is not the real issue. They said the transfer would put the city school district next to a rich industrial tract, in position for a further annexation that would hurt the countywide Miami Trace district.

State board members have indicated an increasing reluctance to approve school transfers, in the wake of the county-to-city annexations, which weaken county districts.

State board members asked a new statement of policy be drawn up for action in September, that may openly oppose transfers which would "reduce a county school district to the danger point or look like they might."

PERRILL questioned why the Washington C. H. board has not acted to sell its bonds, taking the position that the city board is not in litigation and could proceed with construction of new schools if it wished to do so.

He questioned the taking of a five-year option on the Belle Aire property if the board intended to act immediately on the construction of a school there.

Supt. Hilty referred to a resolution passed by the Fayette County Board of Education on June 29 which put that board on record as ready to transfer the 167-acre Belle Aire tract to the Washington C. H. City School District "if and when the Washington C. H. City Board of Education furnishes concrete, tangible and valid evidence that a school will be erected on the alleged site as represented to the electors of Washington C. H. and with the proceeds of the bonds voted."

Flu aboard Ship

City and federal health officials and doctors boarded the ship when she dropped anchor at quarantine Monday night. A large police detail was at the dock to help with disembarking.

Two hours after the ship docked Stephen Galatti, director general of the Field Service, said "As of now it appears that none of the sick students will be hospitalized."

Longshoremen, reluctant to work the ship because of the outbreak, were told "there is no menace or contamination" from handling the cargo.

Only Two in Court

Only two men were fined by Acting Judge William E. Lovell in Municipal Court Tuesday.

One man was fined for intoxication. The other was Raymond C. Howard of near Washington C. H. who paid $5 and costs after he pleaded guilty to running a stop sign.

Senate Gives Nod To Military Jobs

WASHINGTON — The Senate has voted to authorize military construction projects totaling $1,445,285,000 in the current fiscal year which started last July 1.

The Senate passed the authorization bill Monday night. The actual funds will be appropriated in a separate measure.

The Senate version of the authorization measure includes $1,203,412,000 in new authorizations, compared with $1,603,072,000 in the House bill. Differences will have to be compromised.

The House already has passed an appropriations bill providing $1,581,000,000 for military construction, much of which is set up in the authorization measure just passed by the Senate.

TOLEDO — A Swanton man who stabbed his wife to death Monday while home on a trial visit from a mental institution, was bound to the grand jury on a first degree murder charge today. Preston Fisher, 41, was to return to a Veterans Administration hospital at Battle Creek, Mich., next Thursday after a 30-day trial. Sheriff's Deputy Alfred Bartkowiak said Fisher described the stabbing as a nightmare from which he awoke to find himself stabbing his wife, Geneva, 39. The three-inch pocket knife was found near Mercy Hospital where Fisher took his wife's body after the stabbing.

Important Issues In This County for Voters

It may seem a little early to most Fayette County voters to start talking to them about this subject but there are many reasons why they, and all other adult Ohioans, should definitely plan going to the polls on the coming November 5.

First of all there are important municipal and township offices to be filled, and second, there will be a number of issues, some countywide and some for local subdivisions only, to be voted upon. These are important to Fayette County people.

In addition to such local issues and local candidates, there will be four Constitutional Amendment proposals on all Question and Issue ballots for statewide voting. These amendments will be explained and discussed later so that voters may be well informed about them.

For many years there has been stressed the fact that the so-called odd-year elections are just as important as those when national and state officials are elected. It takes very little reasoning to arrive at the fact that the very foundation of all government is local government.

We were impressed recently by a statement made by Brendan Byrne, executive director of the American Heritage Foundation, that the poorest voting record is by persons from the ages of 21 to 29.

While all of us have had a great interest in "first voter" education for many years, this statement gives reason for an added appeal to the "first voters" and to other young voters to study the qualifications of persons seeking local offices and to participate in the election in November. It's a good year to begin!

While vote efforts are always aimed at all voters, there are reasons to place special emphasis this year on "first voters," the young people who are turning 21 years of age, also the numerous citizens who have been careless in the past as to their obligations as citizens regarding voting.

Man in Moon Needs Housewife

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That what the man in the moon needs most is a wife; some scientists say the moon's surface is covered with dust a foot deep.

That a Michigan survey found the workman who whistles or sings on the job does less work than his mate who is always grumbling.

That Mary Roberts Rinehart, one of America's bestloved writers, celebrated her 81st birthday Monday with the publication of her 61st book.

That Haile Selassie is often called the "Sailor Emperor," but Ethiopia has no navy!

That the nose alone on the great stone face of George Washington on the Mt. Rushmore S. D. memorial is longer than the entire head of the sphinx in Egypt, and the sparkle in Abraham Lincoln's eye is a 30-inch granite block.

That actor Walter Slezak says alimony "is like paying on a subscription to a magazine that no longer is being published."

That the average woman buys 3½ hats a year. She'd rather wear half a hat than none.

That a large modern drugstore today carries some 13,000 different items.

That a Manhattan reducing salon has this slogan: "We have no room for expansion—and neither should you."

That a man who shaves from 16 to 75 will remove 60 feet of whiskers from his chin and spend 2,478 hours at his bathroom basin.

That Robert Q. Lewis defines marriage as "a constant test to determine if the husband is faster on the deposit than the wife is on the draw."

That a girl's beauty depends on where she lives. Americans are leg-or-bosom men, the Chinese admire tiny feet, the Burmese go ga-ga over lasses with long necks, and Hotentots prefer ladies who leave a wide imprint when they sit down in a wet bathing suit.

That General Electric scientists have made diamonds out of peanut butter, but they can't spread 'em on bread.

That a husky man exerts a pressure of up to 200 pounds when he bites, but a normal human tooth can stand a pressure of between 40,000 to 60,000 pounds a square inch without cracking.

That hogs can't sweat, which explains why they like to roll in cool mud wallows in hot weather.

That it was Sir Max Beer-bohm who wrote, "Strange when you come to think of it, that of all the countless folk who have lived before our time on this planet not one is known in history or in legend as having died of laughter."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

AT BOB CAMPBELL'S Westwood Bookstore, a lady who had bought every book on reducing suddenly rejected a copy of the new book "How to Lose Weight." "Can't you see I'm suddenly down to 192?" she demanded. "It's on account of my husband. He disappeared three weeks ago, so naturally I'm worried. And when I worry, I don't eat."

"If your husband has disappeared," reasoned Bob, "don't you think you ought to notify the police?"

"I've been thinking of it," admitted the customer, "and believe you me, I will as soon as I worry off about thirty more pounds."

Confessions by Sam Himmell:

"I've wrestled with temptation; I've tried my very best. I've really, truly struggled, my friends will all attest. Yes, I've wrestled with temptation as Father did, and Gramp, And this we're forced to tell you: Temptation's still the champ!"

Who Wants Taxes Cut?

Everybody talks about high taxes and that they should be cut. But who really wants taxes reduced?

Does the farmer who gets a subsidy want taxes reduced? Does the airplane company which gets a subsidy want taxes reduced? Does the shipping company that not only gets a subsidy but sometimes even a monopoly want taxes cut?

Does the manufacturer who gets a subsidy in the form of war orders and who is bailed out when he faces bankruptcy want taxes reduced? Does the worker whose pockets are full of inflated jingle money and who may face unemployment want taxes reduced?

Do the vast horde of public workers, the bureaucracy, federal, state and municipal, want taxes reduced? What would they do for a living? Who really wants taxes reduced?

William Benton remarks on this subject most interestingly:

"In 1950, when I was the most junior member of the United States Senate, a big batch of Hoover Commission proposals came before the Committee on Expenditures, of which I was a member. To my surprise, many of these admirable proposals had no Senate champion. Perhaps because of my business background, these proposals appealed to me powerfully. I leaped to the breach, not, I like to believe, without some success."

Then he added:

"The Senate had many able and dedicated men. Why had they not stepped forward? I quickly learned that, older and wiser than I, they knew there is almost no incentive for them in terms of popular support, meaning votes in the next election."

The Hoover proposals were made by two commissions, one appointed by President Truman, the other by President Eisenhower, the vice presidents and the speakers of the house.

The commissions were to recommend reorganization of the executive branch of the government, to improve it, make it more efficient, and to institute economies wherever possible. During the Truman administration, to which former Sen. Benton refers, considerable progress was made, but not enough. During the Eisenhower administration, although a very emphatic citizen's committee engages in a propaganda to arouse public sentiment for the Hoover economies.

of one company in another must not be used to control the sale of the products of another or to use them preferentially.

The Du Pont decision could be used to kill off the raiders who are becoming a pestilential element in the American economy, endangering not only the ownership of companies but the morale of management.

If the American Bar Assn which prides itself on the purity of its ethics and worries about photographers and television equipment in courts, would make a study of the role played by American lawyers in raiding established companies, it could perform as serious a service as was done years ago when ambulance chasers were discouraged.

An economy in government operations could be found if it ceased to be necessary to police all corporate fiscal activities in this country to safe guard the citizens from crooks—a task that seems too often to end in failure.

Slowly a reporter gathers the details, the publication of which would now be libelous because not yet provable, unless a congressional committee of the stature and integrity of the Pujo committee set out to discover the nature of raiding and what it is costing the American people in terms of increased costs and decreased efficiencies.

It is becoming a serious item in our national economies and needs looking into if disorder, in the interest of specialists in raiding, is not to prevail. Meanwhile, who really wants taxes cut? Could it be the raiders who avoid paying taxes?

Important Issues In This County for Voters

It may seem a little early to most Fayette County voters to start talking to them about this subject but there are many reasons why they, and all other adult Ohioans, should definitely plan going to the polls on the coming November 5.

First of all there are important municipal and township offices to be filled, and second, there will be a number of issues, some countywide and some for local subdivisions only, to be voted upon. These are important to Fayette County people.

In addition to such local issues and local candidates, there will be four Constitutional Amendment proposals on all Question and Issue ballots for statewide voting. These amendments will be explained and discussed later so that voters may be well informed about them.

For many years there has been stressed the fact that the so-called odd-year elections are just as important as those when national and state officials are elected. It takes very little reasoning to arrive at the fact that the very foundation of all government is local government.

We were impressed recently by a statement made by Brendan Byrne, executive director of the American Heritage Foundation, that the poorest voting record is by persons from the ages of 21 to 29.

While all of us have had a great interest in "first voter" education for many years, this statement gives reason for an added appeal to the "first voters" and to other young voters to study the qualifications of persons seeking local offices and to participate in the election in November. It's a good year to begin!

While vote efforts are always aimed at all voters, there are reasons to place special emphasis this year on "first voters," the young people who are turning 21 years of age, also the numerous citizens who have been careless in the past as to their obligations as citizens regarding voting.

AT BOB CAMPBELL'S Westwood Bookstore, a lady who had bought every book on reducing suddenly rejected a copy of the new book "How to Lose Weight." "Can't you see I'm suddenly down to 192?" she demanded. "It's on account of my husband. He disappeared three weeks ago, so naturally I'm worried. And when I worry, I don't eat."

"If your husband has disappeared," reasoned Bob, "don't you think you ought to notify the police?"

"I've been thinking of it," admitted the customer, "and believe you may, I will as soon as I worry off about thirty more pounds."

Tight Money Policies To Be Defended

Federal Reserve Board Chief to Testify Before Senate Panel

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—William McChesney Martin Jr., goes before the Senate finance committee today to explain and defend his tight money policy. He and others are trying monetary controls to iron out the economic wrinkles of boom and bust.

His appearance follows close on two steps on the high interest rate front which might seem to have opposite aims.

1. The Federal Housing Administration has just raised the interest rates to be permitted on government guaranteed home.

The aim: to encourage more home building and start phase of the economy booming again.

2. The Federal Reserve Board which Martin heads has just raised the charge it makes on money borrowed from it by its member banks.

The main aim of higher interest rates and tight bank credit has been to discourage the business expansion boom. Industry has been building new plants and modernizing old ones at a rate the money managers think is inflationary. The aim of tight credit: to slow down the boom and hold off a possible bust.

Thus Washington would seem to be priming the pump of one boom while tightening the values on another.

Critics either question the effectiveness of either step or charge angrily that they aid one set of citizens at the expense of another.

The answer of the money managers is that in both cases—higher discount rate for banks, higher interest rates for mortgage lenders—they aren't leading but following a trend and thus bringing their interest rates in line with those already in effect in other sections of the money market.

FHA says it is making its interest rates realistic because they were so low that mortgage money couldn't be found.

The federal reserve says it is merely getting in step with the commercial banks which had already raised the rates they charge their borrowers in industry and trade.

Skeptics point out that despite steadily rising interest rates the volume of new securities and other forms of borrowing by business have risen steadily to new heights.

They say that interest rates prove a small consideration. For one thing with corporate income taxes around 50 per cent a corporation that borrowed from the bank at its old prime rate of 4 per cent was actually paying only 2 per cent. Now that the rate has gone to 4½ per cent the corporation is paying only 2¼ per cent after figuring its taxes.

Observers who question the effect of interest rates believe the real criterion is the total volume of money and credit in the lending pool. Until this gain through increased savings they doubt if interest rates will reverse their trend—unless Martin should reverse his stand.

Stark County Farmers OK Milk Strike

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A Stark County meeting of dairy farmers has favored a milk strike, and another rally will be held tonight at Wellington in Lorain County.

The Ohio Dairy Farmers Bargaining Assn., head by Joe N. Brown of Jefferson, Ashtabula County, has been sponsoring the series of four meetings.

At an auction barn at Waco Monday night an audience of about 300 discussed withholding milk from the market and most of them stood up when asked to signify they favored a strike.

Previous meetings were at North Bloomfield, Trumbull County, and Creston, Wayne County.

Brown says his organization wants to get $5.50 a hundredweight instead of $4.50 for milk consumed as bottled milk or cream and $4 instead of $3.25 for milk used in manufacturing processes.

3 Teenagers Killed in Rail Mishap

GRAFTON, Ohio (AP)—Three teenagers are the latest victims of a series of grade crossing accidents in northern Ohio.

Friday, three persons were killed by an Erie train near Ashland, and a mother and two children died when a New York Central train hit them in Huron.

A witness to the accident here was Daniel W. Arthington, who operates the gates at the crossing. Deputy B. J. La Crosse quoted him as saying the gates were down, but not broken. He surmised that the gates were not clear down, or the car served around them.

The deputy later tried the gates and found that the one in the lane used by Goldsmith's car came down slower than the others.

Over-Friendly Pup Douses Mailman

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Feroocious dogs are the usual bane of postmen, but letter-carrier E. M. Robinson has been stymied by an over-friendly pup.

Robinson didn't mind the dog's friendliness each time he approached the mail box of the Norman home. It was just that the pup's three-year-old master had attached a water hose to the dog's collar with the spray directed straight ahead.

Stark County Farmers OK Milk Strike

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — A Stark County meeting of dairy farmers has favored a milk strike, and another rally will be held tonight at Wellington in Lorain County.

The Ohio Dairy Farmers Bargaining Assn., head by Joe N. Brown of Jefferson, Ashtabula County, has been sponsoring the series of four meetings.

At an auction barn at Waco Monday night an audience of about 300 discussed withholding milk from the market and most of them stood up when asked to signify they favored a strike.

Previous meetings were at North Bloomfield, Trumbull County, and Creston, Wayne County.

Brown says his organization wants to get $5.50 a hundredweight instead of $4.50 for milk consumed as bottled milk or cream and $4 instead of $3.25 for milk used in manufacturing processes.

3 Teenagers Killed in Rail Mishap

GRAFTON, Ohio (AP)—Three teenagers are the latest victims of a series of grade crossing accidents in northern Ohio.

Patricia Young, 16; Hayward E. Goldsmith, 18, and Argil F. Stalnaker, all of Grafton, died Monday afternoon when a Cleveland-bound New York Central train struck a car driven by Goldsmith at a crossing on Ohio 57.

Friday, three persons were killed by an Erie train near Ashland, and a mother and two children died when a New York Central train hit them in Huron.

A witness to the accident here was Daniel W. Arthington, who operates the gates at the crossing. Deputy B. J. La Crosse quoted him as saying the gates were down, but not broken. He surmised that the gates were not clear down, or the car served around them.

The deputy later tried the gates and found that the one in the lane used by Goldsmith's car came down slower than the others.

Bare Knees, Red Sox of Thief Aid Cops in Capture

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—He walked into the record shop wearing grey flannel Bermuda shorts and bright red knee socks—a pretty cool getup.

After listening to some hot jazz and cha-cha rhythms, he was unable to keep his feet still. He bolted from the store — taking with him 10 record albums.

Clerk Irvin Medway dashed after him. Police joined the chase.

It was an easy matter following those bare knees and red socks through the downtown, lunch hour crowds.

And despite being dressed for a race, he was caught by long pants police and carted off to the stationhouse. There he was charged with attempted robbery, larceny and receiving stolen goods. He was identified as Harry Sawyer, 18, of Philadelphia.

HOW TO USE FILLER

Open-grained new woods such as oak, walnut and mahogany require "filling" before they are varnished. Paste wood fillers are the most popular today. First, reduce the filler to a thin paste by mixing it with turpentine. Brush filler on with the grain. Let set for half an hour being sure to remove excess with a coarse cloth before filler hardens. Allow at least 24 hours drying time before applying varnish or other surface finish.

Braves Facing Big Test in National Loop

Redlegs, Cards Slated For Another Series With League Leaders

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If you don't believe what happened in the National League race last week, pal, stick around. They are going to play it over this week.

And if St. Louis, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and Philadelphia ain't dead, now's the time for 'em to start breathin'.

In six days last week, Milwaukee swept three at home from Cincinnati, then took three of three at St. Louis, moving from half a game behind into a 5 1/2-game lead. This week, the Braves play three at Cincinnati, starting tonight and four with St. Louis, beginning Friday night at Milwaukee.

The second-place Cardinals, who skidded from the top with a six-game losing streak that started with a three-game sweep by Chicago's Cubs at St. Louis, opened a three-game series at Chicago today before the return shot at the Braves.

Cincinnati, in fourth place, seven games back, shook off that three-game set at Milwaukee (which left the Redlegs 11-2 the Cubs in three at week's end. This week, the Redlegs again wind against the Braves) to sweep the Cubs in three at week's end. This week, the Redlegs again wind up against the Braves, with four at Chicago beginning Friday.

Third-place Brooklyn was only 2 1/2 games behind a week ago, then lost three of four to New York's sixth-place Giants and split four with last-place Pittsburgh to trail by 6 1/2. This week the Dodgers play three with the Giants, beginning tonight at New York, and another four with the Pirates, at Jersey City and in Brooklyn.

Philadelphia, nine games back and in fifth, split two at Pittsburgh and lost two of three at New York last week. Now the Phils are home, playing the first of two with the Bucs tonight and then beginning a four-game set with the Giants Friday.

In short, it's a week that could give the Braves a prohibitive lead when they open their last swing through the East next week. It's also a week that could leave the NL race all snarled up again.

At the moment the Braves are rolling, winning seven in a row (their best drive of the year), 14 of 16 and 21 of 26. They're the best in the league against contenders — 38-22 (.633) vs. the Cards, Brooks, Reds and Phils.

This is only the second time the Braves have held as much as a 5 1/2-game lead since moving to Milwaukee in 1953. They led Cincinnati by 5 1/2 and Brooklyn by six July 26 last year—when they finished a game behind Brooklyn's champs.

There's only a 5 1/2-game spread between first and second at the moment in the American League too. But it looks like a mile and a half.

The New York Yankees have the bulge, after holding a seven-game edge a week ago. The Yankees were only 3-4 for the week, but Chicago's second-place White Sox won only four of seven. That's not the kind of ball that beats the Yankees.

New York has three games at Boston against the third-place Red Sox (12 games behind), beginning tonight, then finishes the week at home with four against Baltimore's surprising Orioles, now tied with Detroit for fourth, 18 1/2 games back.

The White Sox are at Cleveland for three starting tonight, then move to Detroit for four.

Martins Ferry '9'

Wins Colt Loop Title
FINDLAY — The Martins Ferry team will go to Ontario, Calif., for the national championships in the Colt (12-16 years) Baseball League.

Martins Ferry won the Eastern regional championship Monday by defeating Jacksonville twice in the double elimination tournament, 5-1 and 3-2.

Eddie Arcaro Gets Another Suspension

CHICAGO (AP)—Jockey Eddie Arcaro, suspended for 10 days for "careless riding" while aboard Dedicate in the $100,000 Atlantic City Handicap Saturday, came close to blowing the Prairie State Stakes with Alhambra at Washington Park Monday.

"If we would have lost it would have been my fault," said Arcaro after riding the Fred W. Hooper 2-year-old star to a photo finish victory over R.D. Prewitt's Terra Firma.

Alhambra, a 1-10 favorite, appeared to be beaten with about 100 feet to go when Arcaro gave a mighty urge that sent the son of Olympia to victory.

Arcaro's suspension begins today and ends Aug. 23, one day before he is scheduled to ride Alhambra in the $125,000 Washington Park Futurity.

Arcaro's suspension by Atlantic City stewards was announced Monday. They said they detected interference at the far turn and disqualified his mount, Dedicate.

Dedicate finished the mile and three sixteenths in a record 1:54.4-5, three lengths ahead of Royal Beacon. The record of 1:57.3-5 set by Turbine in 1946 still stands.

Notified of the suspension, Arcaro said "I don't think the horse (Dedicate) should have been disqualified."

It was the third time in less than a month that Arcaro's mounts were disqualified in rich race stakes in which he finished first. Down the drain went some $200,000 in owner earnings.

Panther Girls Win From Bloomingburg

Making the best of a 14-hit attack, the T-Panthers handed Bloomingburg a 15 to 9 defeat in the girls softball tournament now in progress at the park on Oak and Ave. as a part of the community recreation program.

Lineups (including hits and runs) were:

Bloomingburg—Lytle 1-2; Cramer 1-1; Weaver 4-3; McCoy 1-2; Conway 2-3; Owens 3-1; Harris 1-2; Osborne 0-0; Stagg 1-0; Winfield 0-0.

T-Panthers—Smith 0-0; Redding 0-1; J. Weaver 1-0; Craig 0-0; Evans 1-1; E. Harris 1-1; L. Harris 3-3; Byrd 2-0; Ayre 0-1; M. Harris 1-2; Halthcock 0-0.

Petti, Hagan Sign St. Louis Hawks Pacts

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Hawks of the National Basketball Assn. Monday signed two of their stars for the coming season—Bob Pettit, 6-9 jump shot artist, and Cliff Hagan, 6-4, of University of Kentucky.

Pettit was the 1955-56 NBA scoring champ but missed repeating last year when he broke his left wrist late in the season.

Pettit reportedly signed for $20,000. Hagan for $10,000.

Brays Beat Medics To Hold League Lead

The Brays continued their romp along at the front of the Babe Ruth League race Monday evening with an 11 to 5 victory over the Medics at the park here.

The Medics had the league leaders on the ropes with a 4-2 lead through the first five innings. The Brays evened the score in the sixth and then lowered the boom with a 7-run outburst in the seventh that won the game with plenty to spare.

Although the Brays made 6 errors, O'Call's 3-hit pitching kept the Medics tamed. Reno's double was the only extra-base hit off O'Call.

A pair of doublings by the Brays nipped threats by the Medics. Stillings and Lawrence pulled one of them. The other also started with Stillings and went on to Wilson and Southworth.

Southworth and Johnson swung the big bats for the Brays, each came through with a triple to contribute to their team's 15-hit attack.

O'Call fanned 3 and walked 5 while Massie struck out 7 and gave up only 3 bases on balls.

Ippolito Flunks In Ring Test

NEW YORK (AP)—Frankie Ippolito has a degree from Manhattan College but as far as some of the hangers-on boxing are concerned, the young schoolteacher-fighter flunked a big test Monday night.

Frankie dropped a close but unanimous 10-round decision at St. Nicholas Arena to Orlando Zulueta, veteran Cuban lightweight contender. Afterward, Ippolito said the officials were right.

"My seconds told me I had to win the last round," said the 23-year-old Ippolito. "I tried but I didn't win it. That gave him the fight."

.22 Caliber Shooters Vying for Laurels

CAMP PERRY (AP)—The .22 caliber stage of the National Pistol Matches opened on the National Guard ranges here today.

It is the first of three stages. The .38 caliber will be used Wednesday and the .45 Thursday. Approximately 1,300 military and civilian shooters are in the field.

The first competition was an international free pistol event Monday, won by Olfutt Pinion, a chief warrant officer in the U. S. Navy.

New Yorker Under Fire in Sulky Dispute

NEW YORK (AP)—A hearing called to investigate George P. Monaghan's competence to hold office as New York state harness racing commissioner resumes today after a stormy Monday session.

Monaghan charged Monday that if it hadn't been for action of the commission an allegedly crooked practice at Batavia Downs would have been ignored by the U. S. Trotting Assn., with whom he has been at odds for several years.

Monaghan said the commission was asked by the president of the Batavia track Pat Provenzano, to investigate racing there in September, 1955. The commissioner said the USTA had tried to cover up conditions there, including the "shooting in" of horses in races.

Shooting-in was described as a practice in which drivers with the best horses hold back so a poorer horse can win.

He said the USTA investigated but made no report.

Frank L. Wiswall, general counsel for the USTA with headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, had a brief but curt reply to Monaghan. "The constant inferences," he said, "are malicious and that of a windy blatherskite."

Redlegs Win, 15-3 From Wizard Team

Jim Everhart struck out 14 Redlegs in five innings to lead his Wizards to a 15-3 victory at Armbrust Field Monday.

Everhart allowed three hits and gave up only two walks. Jim Warner led the hitting attack with two home runs and a double.

The lineups included:
Wizards—Bach, 0-0; Starkey 2-3; Stratton, 1-3; Warner 3-3; Everhart 2-3; Mack 0-0; Bruce, 1-3; Thomas 1-1; McCoy, 0-2; Wade, 0-1; Osborne 0-2; Tremlett 0-1; Oyer 1-2; Jackson 0-2; and Leach, 0-1.

Redlegs—Flowers 2-2; Steward, 0-2; Martin 1-2; Wilson 0-1; Kelley 0-0; Orne 0-2; Downs 0-1; Strattonberger, 0-2; Sword 0-1; Lindsay, 0-1; Penwell 0-1; Derber 0-1; Kelley 0-1; Blade 0-0; Abbott 0-0; Kearns 0-2; Coffman 0-0; Gatewood 0-1; Adams 0-0 and Downs 0-1.

Quarterback Ills Plaguing Browns

HIRAM (AP)—Because Tommy O'Connell is limping, the Cleveland Browns will speed up the testing of their rookie quarterbacks in Wednesday night's exhibition at Detroit.

Coach Paul Brown had planned to let O'Connell do most of the work in the early exhibition contests, bringing the freshmen along slowly.

But O'Connell injured a knee. Milt Plum of Penn State may be the first to get a trial.

John Borton of Alliance and Ohio State, who has been out of circulation for several years, developed a sore arm and hasn't done any passing for several days.

Bobby Garrett also had a sore arm but says it is loosening up.

Good Hope Boys Win From Girtons, 18-14

The Good Hope boys appear to be hitting their stride in the Babe Ruth League after trailing through the early stages of the schedule. Monday evening, the cellar dwellers knocked off the Girtons 18 to 14 by combining 10 hits with 12 bases on balls.

A tight defense and effective pitching in the pinches, despite the 14-hit attack by the Girtons, were the principal factors in the Good Hope victory. Frock's control was unusually good; he walked only two and fanned six.

Lynch led the Girtons offense with 4 hits in 4 trips. Wright also had a perfect day at bat with 2 for 2. Strouth and Frock were the leading hitters for Good Hope. Each of them got 3 hits in 4 trips.

Thumper Leading Major Sluggers

NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Williams, the fabulous thumper of the Boston Red Sox, and Willie Mays of the New York Giants today boast the highest slugging averages in the major leagues.

Williams has compiled 250 total bases in 346 times at bat for a slugging mark of .723. The 38-year-old outfielder has 24 doubles, one triple and 30 homers.

Mays is slugging .630 with 266 total bases in 422 at bats while Hank Aaron of Milwaukee is at .628 with 273 total bases. The most in the majors—in 435 tries. Among Willie's extra bases are 19 doubles, 15 triples and 26 homers. Aaron has a league-leading total of 32 homers plus 20 two-batters and five triples.

Tebbetts Mysterious About Starting Hurler

CINCINNATI (AP)—Manager Birdie Tebbetts has made a minor mystery out of the pitcher he will use in tonight's game against the Milwaukee Braves.

The Cincinnati Redleg manager says he may lead with his left-hander, Joe Nuxhall, or with his winningest righthander, Brooks Lawrence.

But the Redleg hurler's opponent is plain. Brave Manager Fred Haney nominated Lew Burdette, who has had unusual success against the Redlegs this season.

Tribe Recalls When It, Too, Had Pitching

CLEVELAND (AP)—A strong armed pitching staff kept the Cleveland Indians in the thick of the pennant chase in past seasons and is doing the same for the Chicago White Sox this year.

Perennial runner-up to the New York Yankees, the Indians dropped to sixth place this season when injuries and illness hobbled the pitching brigade.

Second-place Chicago has developed what is probably the best crop of pitchers in the league with such standouts as Billy Pierce, Dick Donovan and Jim Wilson. Pierce, with a 15-8 record, is the winningest pitcher in the league.

White Sox hurlers have pitched a total of 43 games without relief while the Indians have turned in only 30 complete performances. Early Wynn leads the Tribe with 11 games.

Pierce, who will oppose Ray Narleski in the opener of a three-game series here tonight, has finished 13 games. Only two other major league pitchers have done as well. Tom Brewer of Boston and the New York Giants' Ruben Gomez.

Narleski is the current ace for Cleveland after starting the season in the bullpen. His 9-1 record and 2.24 earned run average is the best of the Indians' pitchers still able to pitch.

The big fireman in the Tribe's bullpen these days is Cal McLish. But he won't be around for tonight's game after being hit in the side of the head with a thrown ball before Sunday's doubleheader.

Golf's 19th Hole

There is rarely a dull day on the golf course at the Country Club here. Tournaments of one kind or another arranged by Tony Capuana, the club pro, are in progress almost from snow to snow.

The annual handicap tourney is now in the final stages, but the championship tourney, also played in flights, is now under way to keep alive interest in competitive golf.

The next Scotch foursome is scheduled for Aug. 18 and a parent and child Scotch foursome is in the making for Aug. 25.

In these Scotch foursomes, a man and woman (usually husband and wife) play the same ball alternately.

The parent and child Scotch foursome will follow the same pattern, the principal difference being that a parent and son or daughter will play the same ball alternately.

The regular Scotch foursomes and buffet suppers afterward, have been drawing big entry lists and Capuana said he hoped the one for parents and children will be as popular. He is asking that teams of parents and children sign up with him as soon as possible.

ODDS AND ENDS from the pro's notebook:

Mrs. Byers Shaw and Mrs. Frank Dawson celebrated their birthdays together at the club playing golf and eating hot dog sandwiches.

Among the best ever scores last week were: Chuck Meriwether 86 on 18 holes; Doug Bray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bray, 51; Mrs. Ed Vollette 53 and Mrs. Clarence Christman 54.

Bill Westerfield of New Orleans and Chuck Jones of St. Louis were guests of Bill Junk.

Next Country Club dance will be Saturday night.

George Smith sank a 16-foot putt for a birdie 2 on the No. 8 hole. Glen Roseboom, Dr. O. W. House, Lon Tannehill and Wayne Shobe played in the Columbus district senior golf tournament.

Dick Davis, who has improved his short game considerably, sank a 35-yard approach on No. 9. Howard Mann is back from Florida where he said he played a little golf.

Mrs. Willard McLean sank a 35-yard approach shot for a birdie 4 on the 500-yard long No. 9.

Dana Hyer refinished his clubs and admitted he shot his worst game in years.

Middletown Fen Signs Harkrader

MIDDLETOWN (AP)—Jerry Harkrader, former Middletown High School and Ohio State University football star, has been named football coach at Middletown Fenwick High School.

He succeeds Bob Holycross, who resigned last week to take a high school coaching job in the Los Angeles area. Holycross had been here only a year after coming from Dayton Chaminade.

Harkrader, who played halfback on Ohio State's January 1955 Rose Bowl team, has been in the real estate business here since his graduation in 1956.

Brays Beat Medics To Hold League Lead

The Brays continued their romp along at the front of the Babe Ruth League race Monday evening with an 11 to 5 victory over the Medics at the park here.

The Medics had the league leaders on the ropes with a 4-2 lead through the first five innings. The Brays evened the score in the sixth and then lowered the boom with a 7-run outburst in the seventh that won the game with plenty to spare.

Although the Brays made 6 errors, O'Call's 3-hit pitching kept the Medics tamed. Reno's double was the only extra-base hit off O'Call.

A pair of double-plays by the Brays nipped threats by the Medics. Stillings and Lawrence pulled one of them. The other also started with Stillings and went on to Wilson and Southworth.

Southworth and Johnson swung the big bats for the Brays, each came through with a triple to contribute to their team's 15-hit attack.

O'Call fanned 3 and walked 5 while Massie struck out 7 and gave up only 3 bases on balls.

Ippolito Flunks In Ring Test

NEW YORK (AP)—Frankie Ippolito has a degree from Manhattan College but as far as some of the hangers-on boxing are concerned, the young schoolteacher-fighter flunked a big test Monday night.

Frankie dropped a close but unanimous 10-round decision at St. Nicholas Arena to Orlando Zulueta, a veteran Cuban lightweight contender. Afterward, Ippolito said the officials were right.

"My seconds told me I had to win the last round," said the 23-year-old Ippolito. "I tried but I didn't win it. That gave him the fight."

.22 Caliber Shooters Vying for Laurels

CAMP PERRY (AP)—The .22 caliber stage of the National Pistol Matches opened on the National Guard ranges here today.

It is the first of three stages. The .38 caliber will be used Wednesday and the .45 Thursday. Approximately 1,300 military and civilian shooters are in the field.

The first competition was an international free pistol event Monday, won by Offutt Pinion, a chief warrant officer in the U. S. Navy.

New Yorker Under Fire in Sulky Dispute

NEW YORK (AP)—A hearing called to investigate George P. Monaghan's competence to hold office as New York state harness racing commissioner resumes today after a stormy Monday session.

Monaghan charged Monday that if it hadn't been for action of the commission an allegedly crooked practice at Batavia Downs would have been ignored by the U. S. Trotting Assn., with whom he has been at odds for several years.

Monaghan said the commission was asked by the president of the Batavia track Pat Provenzano, to investigate racing there in September, 1955. The commissioner said the USTA had tried to cover up conditions there, including the "shooting in" of horses in races.

Shooting-in was described as a practice in which drivers with the best horses hold back so a poorer horse can win.

He said the USTA investigated but made no report.

Frank L. Wiswall, general counsel for the USTA with headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, had a brief but curt reply to Monaghan. "The constant inferences," he said, "are malicious and that of a windy blatherskite."

Redlegs Win, 15-3 From Wizard Team

Jim Everhart struck out 14 Redlegs in five innings to lead his Wizards to a 15-3 victory at Armbrust Field Monday.

Everhart allowed three hits and gave up only two walks. Jim Warner led the hitting attack with two home runs and a double.

The lineups included:

Wizards—Bach, 0-0; Starkey 2-3; Stratton, 1-3; Warner 3-3; Everhart 2-3; Mack 0-0; Bruce, 1-3; Thomas 1-1; McCoy, 0-2; Wade, 0-1; Osborne 0-2; Tremlett 0-1; Oyer 1-2; Jackson 0-2; and Leach, 0-1.

Redlegs—Flowers 2-2; Steward, 0-2; Marlin 1-2; Wilson 0-1; Kelley 0-0; Orner 0-2; Downs 0-1; Strattenburger, 0-2; Sword 0-1; Lindsay, 0-1; Penwell 0-1; Derber 0-1; Kelley 0-1; Blade 0-0; Abbott 0-0; Kearns 0-2; Coffman 0-0; Gatewood 0-1; Adams 0-0 and Downs 0-1.

Quarterback Ills Plaguing Browns

HIRAM (AP)—Because Tommy O'Connell is limping, the Cleveland Browns will speed up the testing of their rookie quarterbacks in Wednesday night's exhibition at Detroit.

Coach Paul Brown had planned to let O'Connell do most of the work in the early exhibition contests, bringing the freshmen along slowly.

But O'Connell injured a knee. Milt Plum of Penn State may be the first to get a trial.

John Barton of Alliance and Ohio State, who has been out of circulation for several years, developed a sore arm and hasn't done any passing for several days.

Bobby Garrett also had a sore arm but says it is loosening up.

Good Hope Boys Win From Girtions, 18-14

The Good Hope boys appear to be hitting their stride in the Babe Ruth League after trailing through the early stages of the schedule.

Monday evening, the cellar dwellers knocked off the Girtions 18 to 14 by combining 10 hits with 12 bases on balls.

A tight defense and effective pitching in the pinches, despite the 14-hit attack by the Girtions, were the principal factors in the Good Hope victory. Frock's control was unusually good; he walked only two and fanned six.

Lynch led the Girtion offense with 4 hits in 4 trips. Wright also had a perfect day at bat with 2 for 2. Strouth and Frock were the leading hitters for Good Hope. Each of them got 3 hits in 4 trips.

Thumper Leading Major Sluggers

NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Williams, the fabulous thumper of the Boston Red Sox, and Willie Mays of the New York Giants today boast the highest slugging averages in the major leagues.

Williams has compiled 250 total bases in 346 times at bat for a slugging mark of .723. The 38-year-old outfielder has 24 doubles, one triple and 30 homers.

Mays is slugging .630 with 266 total bases in 422 at bats while Hank Aaron of Milwaukee is at .628 with 273 total bases the most in the majors—in 435 tries. Among Willie's extra bases are 19 doubles, 15 triples and 26 homers. Aaron has a league-leading total of 32 homers plus 20 two-batters and five triples.

Tebbetts Mysterious About Starting Hurler

CINCINNATI (AP)—Manager Birdie Tebbetts has made a minor mystery out of the pitcher he will use in tonight's game against the Milwaukee Braves.

The Cincinnati Redleg manager says he may lead with his left-hander, Joe Nuxhall, or with his winningest righthander, Brooks Lawrence.

But the Redleg hurler's opponent is plain. Brave Manager Fred Haney nominated Lew Burdette, who has had unusual success against the Redlegs this season.

Tribe Recalls When It, Too, Had Pitching

CLEVELAND (AP)—A strong-armed pitching staff kept the Cleveland Indians in the thick of the pennant chase in past seasons and is doing the same for the Chicago White Sox this year.

Perennial runner-up to the New York Yankees, the Indians dropped to sixth place this season when injuries and illness hobbled the pitching brigade.

Second-place Chicago has developed what is probably the best crop of pitchers in the league with such standouts as Billy Pierce, Dick Donovan and Jim Wilson. Pierce, with a 15-8 record, is the winningest pitcher in the league.

White Sox hurlers have pitched a total of 43 games without relief while the Indians have turned in only 30 complete performances. Early Wynn leads the Tribe with 11 games.

Pierce, who will oppose Ray Narleski in the opener of a three-game series here tonight, has finished 13 games. Only two other major league pitchers have done as well. Tom Brewer of Boston and the New York Giants' Ruben Gomez.

Narleski is the current ace for Cleveland after starting the season in the bullpen. His 9-1 record and 2.24 earned run average is the best of the Indians' pitchers still able to pitch.

The big fireman in the Tribe's bullpen these days is Cal McLish. But he won't be around for tonight's game after being hit in the side of the head with a thrown ball before Sunday's doubleheader.

Dawson Sets Pace For Cage Victory

With Dale Dawson setting a fast pace with 25 points, the McCoy's trounced the team led by Webb Ellis, 61 to 44, in a basketball game at the park here Monday.

Swackhammer, with 14 points, and Turner, with 13, sparked the offense for the Ellis crew.

The lineups (field goals, fouls and total points) were:

McCoy's—J. McCoy 1-0-2; Kimball 8-2-18; Dawson 11-3-25; Mason 3-0-6 and J. McCoy 3-4-10.

Ellis's—Ellis 2-0-4; Crouse 0-0-0; Swackhammer 6-2-14; Burke 4-1-9; Orr 0-0-0; Turner 6-1-13; McFadden 2-0-4.

Springfield Girls Favored in Tourney

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Ohio Girls Softball Tournament moves into the semifinals today with unbeaten Springfield favored to win the championship.

Canton will face Grove City. Dayton will meet the winner of that clash. All have lost one game in the double elimination tournament. The winner will face Springfield in the championship contest Wednesday.

Golf's 19th Hole

There is rarely a dull day on the golf course at the Country Club here. Tournaments of one kind or another arranged by Tony Capuana, the club pro, are in progress almost from snow to snow.

The annual handicap tourney is now in the final stages, but the championship tourney, also played in flights, is now under way to keep alive interest in competitive golf.

The next Scotch foursome is scheduled for Aug. 18 and a parent and child Scotch foursome is in the making for Aug. 25.

In these Scotch foursomes, a man and woman (usually husband and wife) play the same ball alternately.

The parent and child Scotch foursome will follow the same pattern, the principal difference being that a parent and son or daughter will play the same ball alternately.

The regular Scotch foursomes and buffet suppers afterward, have been drawing big entry lists and Capuana said he hoped the one for parents and children will be as popular. He is asking that teams of parents and children sign up with him as soon as possible.

ODDS AND ENDS from the pro's notebook:

Mrs. Byers Shaw and Mrs. Frank Dawson celebrated their birthdays together at the club playing golf and eating hot dog sandwiches.

Among the best ever scores last week were: Chuck Meriwether 86 on 18 holes; Doug Bray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bray, 51; Mrs. Ed Vollette 53 and Mrs. Clarence Christman 54.

Bill Westerfield of New Orleans and Chuck Jones of St. Louis were guests of Bill Junk.

Next Country Club dance will be Saturday night.

George Smith sank a 16-foot putt for a birdie 2 on the No. 8 hole. Glen Roseboom, Dr. O. W. House, Lon Tannehill and Wayne Shobe played in the Columbus district senior golf tournament.

Dick Davis, who has improved his short game considerably, sank a 35-yard approach on No. 9.

Howard Mann is back from Florida where he said he played a little golf.

Mrs. Willard McLean sank a 35-yard approach shot for a birdie 4 on the 500-yard long No. 9.

Dana Hyer refinished his clubs and admitted he shot his worst game 11 years.

State Board Tightens School Math-Science Requirements

COLUMBUS (AP) — The importance of science in the Atomic Age was reflected in Ohio's state school board meeting Monday night that approved additional required training in mathematics and science for high school students.

The board approved adding one additional credit in either science or mathematics to the one credit of each now required of students. This would boost the overall number of credits in required subjects from eight to nine, leaving seven electives for the 16 credit units needed for graduation.

The proposed change will not take effect until 1960.

The board also heard a report prepared by Harold J. Bowers, director of the State Division of Teacher Education and Certification, that detailed the teacher shortage problem.

The report, read by E. E. Holt, state superintendent of education, pointed out that there are at present 1,200 unfilled teaching positions in the Ohio public school system.

The report noted that the shortage could be made up if those who

State Board Tightens School Math-Science Requirements

COLUMBUS (AP) — The importance of science in the Atomic Age was reflected in Ohio's state school board meeting Monday night that approved additional required training in mathematics and science for high school students.

The board approved adding one additional credit in either science or mathematics to the overall number of credits in required subjects from eight to nine, leaving seven electives for the 16 credit units needed for graduation.

The proposed change will not take effect until 1960.

The board also heard a report prepared by Harold J. Bowers, director of the State Division of Teacher Education and Certification, that detailed the teacher shortage problem.

The report, read by E. E. Holt, state superintendent of education,
pointed out that there are at present 1,200 unfilled teaching positions in the Ohio public school system.
The report noted that the shortage could be made up if those who have left the classroom to take up other occupations would return.

Approved regulations for paying $1 million a year in state funds for school tuition emergency assistance.

Approved regulations for applications by districts for shares of the $1 million in state aid in this biennium for additional classrooms. Nov. 1 is the deadline for applications.

Received a request from the Ohio State Automobile Assn. that steps be taken to provide state aid funds for driver education.

REPOSESSED Singer vacuum cleaner.
Pay balance due $125 per week.

Wilson To Succeed Parker As Detroit Lions Coach

DETROIT (AP)—Veteran assistant George Wilson will be named today to succeed Buddy Parker as head coach of the Detroit Lions.

An informed source who made the disclosure said the formal announcement would be made later in the day following a meeting of the professional football club's executive committee.

The 43-year-old Parker, most successful coach in the Lions' 23-year history, exploded a surprise resignation Monday before a gathering of nearly 600 persons at the eighth annual "Meet the Lions" banquet. He insisted he wasn't kidding, that he had thought the matter over thoroughly and told newsmen later that he would not reconsider under any circumstances.

Early today Parker reaffirmed
his stand, saying "The cemetery is full of indispensable men."
An official high up in the Detroit organization, who declined the use of his name, said today

"Parker is out and Wilson is in.
It's as simple as that."

Wilson, 43, has been a Lion assistant coach for eight seasons, and once before was considered for the head coaching job when it was awarded to Parker. Wilson played his college football at Northwestern and later was a star player for 12 seasons with the Chicago Bears.

Parker, awarded a two-year contract last winter after an extensive battle with some of the club's directors who opposed more than a one-year contract last winter after an extensive battle with some of the club's directors who opposed more than a one-year contract, made his startling withdrawal in a terse, two-sentence announcement. Many of the people at the $10-a-plate dinner thought he was joking and laughed, then sat in disbelief as the veteran

coach insisted "I'm not kidding
—I'm through."

Parker had "resigned" before—several times privately and once officially to club President Edwin J. Anderson. In the past, things were ironed out.

Called upon as the final speaker of the evening and expected to review his 1957 club, Parker made a single introductory remark and then said: "When you get to a situation where you can't handle football players, it's time to get out—and that's what I'm doing tonight. I'm through with football in Detroit."

It left the Lions without a head coach just one day before they open the exhibition season in Detroit against the Cleveland Browns
Wednesday night.

Anderson told newsmen, "I don't understand this man. He's well paid, he has the best coaching job in pro football and he always has operated the team without any strings whatsoever."

Succeeding Bob McMillin in 1951,
Parker guided the Lions to 50 victories against 24 losses and 2 ties.
His teams won three Western Conference titles and two world championships.

Monday night he said, "I can't handle this team," and called it
"the worst team I've ever seen in training camp."

He said the material is good but that "there has been no life
... no go ... It's a completely dead team. I'm not satisfied with the way the team is moving. I don't want to get in the middle of another losing season. I think somebody else could handle it better."

He said he wasn't referring to individuals but rather to the team in general. 5

Not bad for a man who is worrying about Cincinnati.

Patty Berg
In No Mood
To Retire

CHICAGO (AP)—Patty Berg figures she has plenty of more
"worlds" to conquer.

"Retire? Me? I've made up my mind to play until I'm 50," said the red haired perennial tournament favorite who is 39.

She'll be back trying for her fifth "world" championship at Tam O'Shanter next year.

She won the $6,000 top prize and the "world" crown Monday in an 18-hole playoff with 37-year-old
Fay Crocker of Uruguay.

They tied at 302 after the regulation 72 holes Sunday, the tie coming when Patty rolled in a 25-foot putt for a birdie 3 on the last hole.

Patty fired a one-over-par 77 to beat Miss Crocker by two strokes in the playoff. The first prize, biggest award in women's golf, boosted Patty's winnings to $15,768. No.
1 position on the ladies PGA money list.

Miss Crocker settled for $2,000,
and is No. 2 with $10,796.

"I started off feeling like I was riding a bucking bronco," said
Miss Crocker, the 1955 Women's National Open champion. "When I took my driver I wasn't comfortable with it. I was hooking, and when I tried to correct it, I was pushing. I was in the rough five times and I've seldom seen rough any tougher to get out of."

Patty took a birdie 3 and Miss Crocker a 5 on the fifth hole. Patty was never seriously threatened thereafter.

Jaycees Discuss 2 New Projects

Football Talked, too, At Dinner Meeting

Members of the Washington C. H. Junior Chamber of Commerce pushed business aside at their meeting Monday night and talked football.

Fred Domenico, athletic director and head coach at Washington C. H. High School, was at the meeting to answer questions and outline plans and policies.

In discussing the outlook for the coming season, Domenico shielded away from making any outright predictions, but his tone was unmistakably optimistic. He told the Jaycees he could foresee some weaknesses, but that on the whole, the prospects were for a good season. He did not, however, indicate the Lions would go through it without a defeat.

Domenico wound up the informal discussion by showing movies of some of last season's games played by the Lions.

THIS WAS the Jaycee social meeting. It was held at Anderson's Drive-In Restaurant and business was held to a minimum.

But, before the group got talking football, there was some discussion of erecting a permanent concession stand at the community park on Millikan and Oakland Aves. No action was taken, since the discussion was intended merely as a sampling of views of the Jaycees.

Should the Jaycees decide to put up the concession stand, it would be as a project similar to the comfort station, which the organization built at the park. Plans for erecting two signs at the outskirts of the city on Route 35 were put into virtual final form. The wording and size of the signs is still undecided, but in general they would give a "Welcome to Washington C. H." to travelers by the Jaycees.

Official figures on the two Jaycees money-raising projects at the Fair were not available at the meeting, but the treasurer said the "dunking machine" and the "slave auction" would net more than $300.

Traffic Accident Suits Ask $27,500

Two damage suits were filed in Common Pleas Court Monday totaling $27,500. Both suits named Norman E. Underwood, 229 1/2 Delaware St., as defendant.

Mable Morton Yoho filed a $25,000 personal injury suit as a result of an automobile accident which occurred July 7. The plaintiff charges negligence on the part of the defendant, claiming that an automobile driven by him hit a car being driven by the plaintiff, causing the plaintiff's car to hit a tree. The accident occurred at the intersection of Forest St. and Campbell St. July 7.

The plaintiff charges negligence in four respects: failure to yield right of way to plaintiff; failure to give any signal or warning of intention to drive into intersection; failure to keep the defendant's automobile under control; and failure to slacken speed or divert his automobile to avoid striking auto driven by the plaintiff which by ordinary care he could have done.

A second damage suit, asking for $2,500 on two counts, was entered by Mrs. Yoho's husband, Vaughn, in connection with the same accident. Yoho asks for damages of $1,000 for hospital, nursing and medical care furnished for his wife. A second count asks for $1,500 for damages sustained by the automobile driven by Mrs. Yoho at the time of the accident.

Chamber Board Plans TGA Day

Teachers Tour Slated Aug. 29

Plans for Teacher-Get-Acquainted Day on Aug. 29 were approved by the board of directors of the Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce at its regular meeting Monday night.

The Chamber will invite all new teachers in the city and county schools to visit a number of the city's industries, utilities and Fayette Memorial Hospital on that day.

Detailed plans for the annual event are being drawn up by Chamber Manager William Stoughton.

Walter Morrow, conducting his first full meeting as president of the organization, appointed Larry Soldan chairman of the Community Activity Fund committee which, among other things, plans the city's Christmas decorations. Other members of the committee are Jack Daves, Al Herr and Gilbert Crouse.

THE BOARD approved Stoughton's plans to visit Camp Breckinridge, Ky., Friday and Saturday. The 116th Regimental Combat Team, of which local Company M. ONG, is a part, is in camp at Breckinridge, and Stoughton's trip (by air from Columbus) was arranged by military authorities who are paying the expenses.

A new budget was approved at the meeting, and there was a discussion of highway matters, but no action was taken pending a report of the Chamber's Highway Committee.

New Comet Visible Here

A few people here saw the new comet in the sky northwest of here Monday night.

Mrs. Clifford Foster, 1105 Lakeview Ave., said she and her husband saw it "very plainly" but explained they went outside the city where they could get a view unobstructed by trees or hampered by street lights.

Mrs. Foster is the only person who has called the Record-Herald to say the comet was visible to the naked eye, but undoubtedly others saw it. Some may have seen it and not recognized what the strange sight was.

The comet was discovered less than a week ago in Denmark.

It has a brightness of about 2.5 magnitudes, it was said at the Perkins Observatory at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware.

While it will be visible for another eight or ten days, the observatory said, it will become fainter each night.

Ohio Solon Set To Call Halt On Indiana

WASHINGTON (AP) — A veteran Ohio congressman said today he will oppose appropriating money for new federal public works projects in Indiana.

Rep. Kirwan (D-Ohio), a ranking member of the House Appropriations Committee, reported the reason for his stand is the Indiana Legislature's opposition to federal aid to the states.

When told of Kirwan's position, Rep. Bray (R-Ind.) said: "I believe Mike Kirwan is confused." He said Indiana Republicans do not oppose federal grants in such fields as flood control and rivers and harbors projects, but do not want aid extended to new areas such as education.

But Rep. Denton (D-Ind.), a member of the Appropriations Committee, said "Kirwan does illustrate the ridiculousness" of Hoosier Republicans fighting federal aid.

Previously, Kirwan said he would oppose public works appropriations for Nebraska. The Nebraska Legislature this year adopted a resolution opposing federal grants to the states.

"They passed the same kind of thing in Indiana several years ago," said Kirwan.

Republican Gov. Harold W. Handley of Indiana repeatedly has attacked the system of federal grants to the states.

Kirwan indicated his stand would have no immediate applications. "But some day," he added, "I will do it. I don't want to presume on their Legislature."

Shiprock, a volcanic formation on the Navajo Indian Reservation in New Mexico, has been scaled only 23 times by skilled climbers. It is 1,640 feet high.

Community Chest Budgets Studied; Some Are Reduced

The budget committee of the Community Chest went over the budgets submitted by the 10 organizations that participated in the distribution last year and the one new organization applying for participation this year at its meeting Monday afternoon.

The new organization is the Fayette County Council for Retarded Children.

All 11 applications for participation in this year's Community Chest were approved, but some of the budgets were cut slightly in the recommendation of the committee.

This was the second approval given to the 11 organizations. The first was by the committee that considered only their programs and objectives.

The final decision will be made by the board of directors, which will meet Wednesday night. The decision may be made at that time. This decision will not only determine what organizations will participate this year, but also the budgets for each of them.

Although some reductions in budgets were recommended by the budget committee Wednesday, the total was a little higher than the $23,000 goal of last year's campaign.

Farm Bureau Co-op Picnic Thursday

All business of the Fayette County Farm Bureau Co-operative Assn. will come to a standstill Thursday. The reason: The annual picnic at Rocky Fork Lake for employees and their families.

Clarence Cooper, general manager, said there are around 50 employees and estimated that these, with their families, will make a gathering of between 150 and 200 at the picnic.

No program has been planned, Cooper said adding that "this is just a day for everyone to have a good time and do what they want to do." He said he supposed some would go swimming, some try their luck at fishing and others just sit around under the trees and visit.

The trip to the lake is to be made in private cars, Cooper said. Each family is expected to bring a basket dinner, then all the food will be spread out on a table.

The picnic will be on the north shore of the lake, Cooper said.

Jaycees Discuss 2 New Projects

Football Talked, too, At Dinner Meeting

Members of the Washington C. H. Junior Chamber of Commerce pushed business aside at their meeting Monday night and talked football.

Fred Domenico, athletic director and head coach at Washington C. H. High School, was at the meeting to answer questions and outline plans and policies.

In discussing the outlook for the coming season, Domenico shielded away from making any outright predictions, but his tone was unmistakably optimistic. He told the Jaycees he could foresee some weaknesses, but that on the whole, the prospects were for a good season. He did not, however, indicate the Lions would go through it without a defeat.

Domenico wound up the informal discussion by showing movies of some of last season's games played by the Lions.

THIS WAS the Jaycee social meeting. It was held at Anderson's Drive-in Restaurant and business was held to a minimum.

But, before the group got talking football, there was some discussion of erecting a permanent concession stand at the community park on Millikan and Oakland Aves. No action was taken, since the discussion was intended merely as a sampling of views of the Jaycees.

Should the Jaycees decide to put up the concession stand, it would be as a project similar to the comfort station, which the organization built at the park.

Plans for erecting two signs at the outskirts of the city on Route 35 were put into virtual final form. The wording and size of the signs is still undecided, but in general they would give a "Welcome to Washington C. H." to travelers by the Jaycees.

Official figures on the two Jaycees money-raising projects at the Fair were not available at the meeting, but the treasurer said the "dunking machine" and the "slave auction" would net more than $300.

Traffic Accident Suits Ask $27,500

Two damage suits were filed in Common Pleas Court Monday totaling $27,500. Both suits named Norman E. Underwood, 229 1/2 Delaware St., as defendant.

Mable Morton Yoho filed a $25,000 personal injury suit as a result of an automobile accident which occurred July 7. The plaintiff charges negligence on the part of the defendant, claiming that an automobile driven by him hit a car being driven by the plaintiff, causing the plaintiff's car to hit a tree. The accident occurred at the intersection of Forest St. and Campbell St. July 7.

The plaintiff charges negligence in four respects: failure to yield right of way to plaintiff; failure to give any signal or warning of intention to drive into intersection; failure to keep the defendant's automobile under control, and failure to slacken speed or divert his automobile to avoid striking auto driven by the plaintiff which by ordinary care he could have done.

A second damage suit, asking for $2,500 on two counts, was entered by Mrs. Yoho's husband, Vaughn, in connection with the same accident. Yoho asks for damages of $1,000 for hospital, nursing and medical care furnished for his wife. A second count asks for $1,500 for damages sustained by the automobile driven by Mrs. Yoho at the time of the accident.

Chamber Board Plans TGA Day

Teachers Tour Slated Aug. 29

Plans for Teacher-Get-Acquainted Day on Aug. 29 were approved by the board of directors of the Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce at its regular meeting Monday night.

The Chamber will invite all new teachers in the city and county schools to visit a number of the city's industries, utilities and Fayette Memorial Hospital on that day.

Detailed plans for the annual event are being drawn up by Chamber Manager William Stoughton.

Walter Morrow, conducting his first full meeting as president of the organization, appointed Larry Soldan chairman of the Community Activity Fund committee which, among other things, plans the city's Christmas decorations. Other members of the committee are Jack Daves, Al Herr and Gilbert Crouse.

THE BOARD approved Stoughton's plans to visit Camp Breckinridge, Ky., Friday and Saturday. The 116th Regimental Combat Team, of which local Company M. O.N.G. is a part, is in camp at Breckinridge, and Stoughton's trip (by air from Columbus) was arranged by military authorities who are paying the expenses.

A new budget was approved at the meeting, and there was a discussion of highway matters, but no action was taken pending a report of the Chamber's Highway Committee.

New Comet Visible Here

A few people here saw the new comet in the sky northwest of here Monday night.

Mrs. Clifford J. Foster, 1105 Lakeview Ave., said she and her husband saw it "very plainly" but explained they went outside the city where they could get a view unobstructed by trees or hampered by street lights.

Mrs. Foster is the only person who has called the Record-Herald to say the comet was visible the naked eye, but undoubtedly others saw it. Some may have seen it and not recognized what the strange sight was.

The comet was discovered less than a week ago in Denmark.

It has a brightness of about 2.5 magnitudes, it was said at the Perkins Observatory at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware.

While it will be visible for another eight or ten days, the observatory said, it will become fainter each night.

Ohio Solon Set To Call Halt On Indiana

WASHINGTON — A veteran Ohio congressman said today he will oppose appropriating money for new federal public works projects in Indiana.

Rep. Kirwan (D-Ohio), a ranking member of the House Appropriations Committee, reported the reason for his stand is the Indiana Legislature's opposition to federal aid to the states.

When told of Kirwan's position, Rep. Bray (R-Ind.) said: "I believe Mike Kirwan is confused." He said Indiana Republicans do not oppose federal grants in such fields as flood control and rivers and harbors projects, but do not want aid extended to new areas such as education.

But Rep. Denton (D-Ind.), a member of the Appropriations Committee, said "Kirwan does illustrate the ridiculousness" of Hoosier Republicans fighting federal aid.

Previously, Kirwan said he would oppose public works appropriations for Nebraska. The Nebraska Legislature this year adopted a resolution opposing federal grants to the states.

"They passed the same kind of thing in Indiana several years ago," said Kirwan.

Republican Gov. Harold W. Handley of Indiana repeatedly has attacked the system of federal grants to the states.

Pills Said No Cure In Mental Cases

DALLAS — The solution to improve mental health is not gulping down handfuls of tranquilizing pills, says an Ohio medical authority.

The solution lies in self knowledge, honest personal evaluation and greater understanding of the brain and its function," said Dr. dean of the college of medicine Chauncey D. Leake, assistant dean of the college of medicine at Ohio State University.
